Health & Safety Excellence Awards 2019

The FSDF Health and Safety Awards recognise excellence in health and safety on an individual and company wide level. There are three awards that are open for nominations and are open to all members and the winners will be announced at the FSDF Annual Lunch on 23 May 2019 at the Kia Oval, London.

Supported by

Individual Award

Recognises individuals whose contributions have made an exceptional difference to health and safety in their workplace.

Company Award

This award acknowledges an initiative, project or a new product which enhances the food storage and distribution industry's health and safety record. There are two awards in this category, one for a full member company and one for an associate member.

What type of initiatives will be considered?

Anything that has had a positive effect on reducing accidents at work, lowering sickness rates and increasing the well-being of the workforce.
