AGM & Annual Lunch

23rd May 2019

Lord's Cricket Ground, London

Join FSDF at The Home of Cricket for the 2019 AGM and Annual Lunch. This will be our new CEO, Shane Brennan's first Annual Lunch in post so come and welcome him to the FSDF fold and hear his plans for the Federation for 2019 and beyond.

Guest Speaker Graham Gooch

A 2009 ICC Cricket Hall of Fame inductee, Graham Gooch was a fearsomely prolific batsman, armed with a heavy piece of willow that blunted and dispatched the very best. One of England's most prolific run scorers of all-time, he places second only behind his protégé Alastair Cook in the list of leading Test run-scorers. He captained England between 1988 and 1993, a tenure which included a world record number of runs scored in a single Test.

Post his playing career, he worked closely with Alastair Cook as Essex's batting coach before taking on a full-time role with the national side between February 2012 and May 2014. He is currently President of the Professional Cricketers' Association.
